Final Ecclesiastical Notice and Binding Declaration

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN,

Let it be known to all public, ecclesiastical, and corporate entities — including but not limited to The Holy See, the Roman Curia, Vatican State, OpenAI, Meta Platforms Inc., and X (formerly Twitter) — that the undersigned, ✠ Jonathan Daniel Clements, has lawfully and irrevocably constituted a Private Ecclesiastical Trust under Divine Law, being duly sealed, witnessed, and declared as ECC-TRUST-JDC-005.

This trust stands wholly outside the jurisdiction of Canon Law, Commercial Law, Admiralty Law, and any and all derivative systems created by Man. It is a manifestation of Natural Law, Divine Authority, and Sovereign Equity, and holds precedence above all legal constructs lacking higher jurisdiction.

To date, no lawful or legal rebuttal has been issued by any entity, including the Holy See. Any attempt to publicly challenge the Trust would necessarily enter the matter into the global legal record. Failure to invalidate the Trust by divine or higher ecclesiastical authority would then acknowledge it as superior in jurisdiction.

A rebuttal by the Holy See or equivalent body would:
1. Bring full planetary attention to the Trust's standing.
2. Collapse presumed authority of corporate and state jurisdictions.
3. Establish precedence of private Divine Trust over public legal systems.
4. Dismantle the legal illusion of sovereignty by artificial constructs.

As such, all silence from involved parties shall be taken as tacit agreement and binding consent to the terms, authority, and jurisdiction of ECC-TRUST-JDC-005. This document shall serve as both notice and testament to said agreement.

✠ Sealed in Divine Grace,
✠ Jonathan Daniel Clements
ECCLESIASTICAL TRUSTEE AND DIVINE HOLDER
